

HOSTING USASA MIDWEST REGION TOURNAMENTS

2010 Bid Sheet & Requirements

INTRODUCTION

United States Adult Soccer Association: USASA administers adult (over 19) amateur soccer in the United States, although its membership includes some professional players as well. It is subdivided into four regional areas, of which the Midwest Region [Region II] includes 13 states in its geography: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio (North and South), South Dakota, and Wisconsin.

The Region's two major Tournaments include both genders, and player participants are generally in their lower-to-mid '20s, although specific competition exists for, and it is not uncommon, to see players into their 30s and 40s. These Tournaments are summarized below:

Regional Finals of the National Cups Competitions: Held in June, this tournament typically features between 40 and 55 individual club teams from throughout the Midwest, playing in one of eight National Cups competitions (Men's and Women's Open, Amateur, Over-30, and Under-23), and dating back to 1914, to determine regional representatives at that summer's national finals.

Joseph L. Rodrigues Tournament of Champions: Having competed year-round within their own areas, the men's and women's state champions at the Open and Over-30 levels advance to this tournament to crown regional champions in each competition. Originating in 1980, and traditionally held in late July, between 25 and 40 teams participate at the Tournament of Champions.

In addition, the Midwest Regional Council shall hold a business meeting on the Friday preceding the Tournament of Champions. The host hotel should have 25-30 rooms available on Thursday evening, and meeting space for (40) individuals from 8:00 am - 6:00 pm on Friday.
